

Putting Down Roots in Castle Rock

Castle Rock, named for the prominent rock formation that overlooks the town and resembles a castle on a hill, was first settled in the 1870s. Ever since those early sojourners ventured here to look for gold, people have been moving to the Rock to take advantage of wide-open spaces, mountain vistas, friendly locals and the promise of a better life.

35 MINUTES
TO DOWNTOWN
DENVER
Learn More

15 MINUTES
TO THE OUTLETS
Learn More

15 MINUTES
TO SHOPPING & DINING
Learn More

10 MINUTES
TO DOWNTOWN
CASTLE ROCK
Learn More

4 NEW HOME
BUILDERS TO CHOOSE FROM
Learn More

Away from It All, and Close to Everything

For anyone working in the Mile High City, making your home 35 minutes from the urban hustle and bustle in a community like Crystal Valley offers the best of all worlds.

Recreation

Crystal Valley has 600 acres of open space, miles of trails, and tons of playgrounds for kids and adults from Pinnacle Park with climbing, sliding, sporting and swimming options to the Rhyolite Park and the Philip S. Miller Park.

History Is Alive and Well

The Castle Rock Historical Society sponsors walking tours of historic Castle Rock, determined to keep the town's history both preserved and accessible. The society hosts historical walking tours during the summer for anybody who wants to experience the fascinating histories of 150-year-old sites.

Shopping & Dining

The range of eateries in Downtown Castle Rock will offer a range of eateries that will tickle your palate from the Union Bistro to Scileppis's and the long-standing B & B Cafe. And shopping options include antique stores, boutiques, The Outlets and convenient big box and home improvement stores.

Buying New in Crystal Valley

Building a brand new home in Castle Rock has benefits beyond being surrounded by nature and an easy commute. Explore the beautiful models and move-in ready homes from Richmond American Homes, Kauffman Homes, Century Communities and D.R. Horton — ranch and two-story designs, priced from the $300s.

CRYSTAL VALLEY
THE NATURE OF HAPPINESS

LiveCrystalValley.com

